The roles of morphosyntax vs. phonology in Irish initial consonant mutation: evidence from preverbal d'

Presentations.

CONFERENCE PAPERS

- May 2025. An autosegmental account of initial consonant mutation in Irish: evidence from preverbal d'. Talk given at the 31st Manchester Phonology Meeting (31mfm) (University of Manchester).
- March 2025. Preverbal d' and its interactions with the initial consonant mutation system in Irish. Talk given at GLOW 47 (Frankfurt am Main); won Student Presentation Excellence Award (€150).
- March 2025. Initial consonant mutation patterns as evidence for domain structure in Irish. Poster presented at Exploring Boundaries: Phonological Domains in the Languages of the World (UiT The Arctic University of Norway, Tromsø).
- September 2024. Resolving the spell-out timing paradox in Irish historic tense lenition. Talk given at the 17th conference on Syntax, Phonology and Language Analysis (SinFonIJA 17) (University of Nova Gorica, Slovenia).
- August 2024. Resolving the spell-out timing paradox in Irish historic tense lenition. Talk given at the 2024 Annual Meeting of the LAGB (Newcastle University).
- June 2024. Myopic effects in the Irish initial consonant mutation system. Talk given at Workshop on Myopia in Grammar (Universität Leipzig).
- June 2024. Two sources of initial consonant mutation in the Irish clause. Talk given at the LEL Postgraduate Conference (LELPGC24) (University of Edinburgh).
- May 2024. Two sources of initial consonant mutation in the Irish clause. Talk given at the 33rd Colloquium on Generative Grammar (CGG) (University of Alcalá, Alcalá de Henares).
- April 2024. Two sources of initial consonant mutation in the Irish clause. Talk given at the Manchester Forum in Linguistics (MFiL) (University of Manchester).
- February 2024. A strictly modular analysis of initial consonant mutation in Irish. Talk given at the 21st Sprachwissenschaftliche Tagung für Promotionsstudierende (STaPs-21) (online hosted by Pázmány Péter Catholic University, Budapest).
- November 2023. Irish initial consonant mutations: disentangling phonology from morphosyntax. Talk given at the Western Conference on Linguistics (WECOL) (online hosted by California State University, Fresno).
- June 2023. Irish initial consonant mutations: disentangling phonology from morphosyntax. Talk given at the LEL postgraduate Conference (LELPGC23) (University of Edinburgh).
- June 2022. Irish initial consonant mutations: disentangling phonology from morphosyntax. Poster presented at ACTL Summer School 2022 (University of York).

INVITED TALKS

- October 2024. Preverbal d' and its interactions with the initial consonant mutation system in Irish. Invited talk: Atelier de Phonologie (online hosted in Paris).
- July 2022. Irish initial consonant mutations: disentangling phonology from morphosyntax. Invited talk: Edinburgh Morphology Reading Group (EdinMorph) (University of Edinburgh).

Dissertations & Projects _

- April 2018. An optimality theory approach to initial consonant mutation in Modern Irish. MPhil dissertation (School of Linguistic, Speech and Communication Sciences, Trinity College Dublin).<sup>1</sup>
- March 2014. Nonlinear electromagnetism in general relativity. Undergraduate dissertation (School of Mathematics, Trinity College Dublin).<sup>1</sup>
- January 2014. In search of the Stradivarius-like solutions in classical wave mechanics. Undergraduate physics project (School of Physics, Trinity College Dublin). Presented at Tomorrow's Mathematicians Today Conference 2014 (University of Surrey).<sup>1</sup>
- December 2013. Alfvén wave heating model of an active region and comparisons with EIS observations. Solar REU project (Harvard-Smithsonian Centre for Astrophysics). Poster presented at the American Geophysical Union Fall Meeting 2013.<sup>1</sup>

August 2012. Theoretical techniques in x-ray spectroscopy. Summer Undergraduate Research Experience (SURE) project (Trinity College Dublin).<sup>1</sup>
